ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sale of Rumford Cottage.
Through John A. Moran, real estate broker, Franklin Rumford and Mary Y. S. Rumford of this city have sold their cottage at Crescent Park known as The Stamford, to Robert and Josephine McBurney of Lafayette street. The cottage contains seven rooms and has a choice location.

Swiss Bell Ringers.
The Swiss Bell Ringers played two very fine concerts at the North High school auditorium under the auspices of the students' association. Both concerts were well attended and the company deserves great credit for playing upon such a great variety of novelty instruments in such a masterly manner. Miss Josephine George is a violinist of rare ability and her work on the xylophone, euphonium, and other instruments proved her to be both talented and versatile. The entire company presented a clean, pleasing appearance, and their solo and ensemble work left nothing to be desired. —Syracuse (N. Y.) Post-Standard.

EXPERIENCE

Coming to Davis Theatre for Two Nights.

Experience, George V. Hobart's modern morality play of today, comes to the Davis theatre for an engagement of two nights, Monday and Tuesday, May 15 and 16. The arrangements for the Experience engagement at the theatre were made with William Elliott, F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, who present this modern morality play of today.

The paganism and the importance, as the famous New York Boston Experience organization comes to Norwich direct from their months in New York and five months in Boston.

Experience gives the stage a story so true to life that it mirrors the life of a few, but in a more or less accentuated and modified form—the life of the universe. The critics have called it a play of vibrant truths that ring a clarion call to all. Mr. Hobart has painted his scenes with a great many strokes bold and true, especially the gambling house scene called The Corridors of Chance and the gay festivities of the modern cabaret called Experience The Primrose Path. Then there is that striking scene in The House of the Last Resort and the scene showing the wreck of the House of the South. The entire company, where Love and Hope, remaining constant, bring back to life Ambition, who Youth thought was dead.

THE NEW HENRIETTA

With the Great Five Star Cast at Davis Theatre Wednesday, May 10th.

Is there a playgoer who does not look back on some one performance as a thing apart from any other experience of the theatre? We are inclined to think not. Twenty years ago it was our good fortune to see William H. Crane and Stuart Robinson in Bronson Howard's exhilarating comedy, The Henrietta. This romantic story of American life was written for these beloved comedians, and the reversed Union Square theatre, New York city, was the scene of the first production, and for those days, it had a wonderful run of success. All the leading roles of the piece were interpreted by actors of singular fitness and convincing personality, and not a moment of action nor word of dialogue failed in delivering the intention of the author. We have seen a great many when he tells Youth "I am the champion schoolmaster of the world." There are 22 speaking roles in the play, and in the cabaret scene called The Primrose Path of Pleasure there is a full comic opera chorus, and in this scene there are nine beautiful women who portray respectively Pleasure, Beauty, Intoxication, Excitement, Deceit, Slander, Passion, Jealousy and Love. The critics say the remarkable and fascinating beauty of the ladies of Experience company have set a new and almost unapproachable standard of fascinating stardom for the stage. In the notable cast of 22 players in the New York-Boston Experience organization are: Harry H. Barber, John Todd, Emmett C. King, Madeline Allan, Marion Holcombe, Edgar Anderson, Harry Buchanan, Margie Keval, Maude Furness, Al Collins, Oliver Hinesdel, Sally McCormick, Charles Haskins, Duncan Harris, Peggy O'Keefe, Vera Leonard, Marie Sinclair, Charles Hinz, George Seybold, Albe de Anchorage, Fraser Coulter, J. W. Cahill, Doris Moore, Helen Gill, William Dupont, George T. Meach and George Berry. The stage will be under the direction of Edwin Siltow, and Moe Blitch will direct the musical numbers.

Seats are now on sale at the box office.

How Norwich Women May Keep Their Hair Soft and Beautiful

Dandruff must be removed and the hair roots nourished to stop falling hair and itching scalp. It is unnecessary to have brittle, matted, wispy or faded locks. No matter how unsightly the hair, how brittle it is falling, or how much dandruff, Parisian Sage rubbed into the scalp is all that is ever needed. The hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, even all dandruff is removed with one application, and itching scalp and falling hair ceases; the hair appears more abundant and is always soft, fluffy and radiant with life and beauty.

Parisian Sage, a daintily perfumed liquid, is one of the most pleasant, invigorating and refreshing hair dressings known, yet perfectly harmless and inexpensive. After the first application you will be surprised and delighted with Parisian Sage, for there is nothing that will so help to double your present attractiveness as this instant, glorious hair, and this tonic treatment is all that can possibly be desired.

Be sure to get Parisian Sage from Lee and Osgood, or at any drug or toilet counter, as there is no other so effective.
